

CANAL POINT

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lamar of Lake Worth were callers in Canal Point Wednesday, coming out to see the country of which they had heard so much. They were formerly agent at Lake Worth for the Standard Air Line railroad.

Among the produce people who attended the "canned fruit merchants' convention" in Miami this week were Henry Barwick, Henry Lattimore and E. M. Pope.

Among the many people who went to Miami to see the airplane exhibitions were Doc James, Byron Todd, Wilbur Smith, Elsie and Glady Wilkerson, Myrtle Bridges and Kansas Todd.

J. E. Lucas, civil engineer with the U. S. C. railroad, was here this week looking up land location points as preliminary to trial of the suit of Simons and Watkins against the railroad company for trespass.

Guy Boynton, five-year old son of Seaton Boynton, Canal Point, who broke his left arm in a fall from the porch, was taken to the hospital. Both bones were broken just below the elbow.

Woman Prescribed Her Own Medicine

Big Chief's Prescription, said in Canal Point since the third week of December, will be a prescription for the future of the Lake Worth and Seaton Boynton. Chief's officers there have issued an order to the proprietor of the show which has been in Canal Point near the express shed that they pass Pahokee up. The show is reported to have gone to Belle Glade.

The medicine show was scene of two difficulties in Canal Point this week. The first was a cutting of a gray between two negroes, a negro girl and a negro man. Jealousy was the cause of the cutting. The original, is one of the earliest settlers in Palm Beach county and the wife of the man who was killed.

The shooting affray grew out of an argument over the cutting. The proprietor of the show, a wife quarried about the negro girl and a negro man. Jealousy was the cause of the cutting. The original, is one of the earliest settlers in Palm Beach county and the wife of the man who was killed.

Tuesday night the woman shot her husband in the left side of the neck with a .25-20. The pistol was confiscated.

JACK HOBBS, FURRIER BY TRACTOR THURSDAY

Jack Hobbs of Canal Point was injured Thursday morning when he was run over by a tractor of the crawler type. He was taken to West Palm Beach and a hospital Friday morning for an X-ray picture to see if the leg is broken or fractured.

Hobbs had just quit work at about 6 o'clock Thursday morning. He had been operating a tractor on the sugar mill on the West Palm Beach Road. He started across the road, thinking the tractor was further away than it was, when he was run over by a tractor.

Hobbs was severely injured but not dangerously so.

"POSSESSED" STAGE HIT, COMING TO PRINCE

"Possessed" Joan Crawford's latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, opening Thursday at the Prince theater for two days, is an adaptation of the successful play "Possessed" by the "Miner's" Clark Gable, who last acted opposite Greta Garbo in "Rains, Lovers," had the leading male role.

The heroine of "Possessed" made famous by Florence Reed in the stage version, sees Miss Crawford a wide range of acting opportunities. She is seen as a factory worker who can not reconcile herself to the poverty of her class. Instead she makes the most of her charms by going to New York, where she comes intimate with Gable in the role of a young millionaire with political ambitions.

No Report On Other Cross State Canal

Following dispatch distributed by the Associated Press, it is probably refers to a project in North Florida, and not to the real cross-state canal by way of St. Lucie canal and Lake Okechobee and Calumet-hatchee river.

"WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The board of army engineers considered the physical survey for the proposed Florida cross state canal today but failed to take final action.

It was said action would come within a week in the department to the chief of engineers.

"Tuesday" when unfavorable recommendations are made and hearings are advertised. None has been called on the Florida project.

CALLERS

Visits to Florida tend to keep people young, according to a caller who visited to this office, vouching a statement that he is 71 years old, or something like that. His appearance indicates he is 20 years younger. A. S. Wheeler of Chicago, stopped in Monday to see his mother-in-law, who is in charge of the house in Chicago, for he has been coming to Florida each winter for many years. Accompanying him were Mrs. and Mrs. Ella Miller of Chicago. Mr. Miller was in the postal service for 50 years; Mr. Wheeler had been in the service 40 years. Both are now retired. With them were Miss Hortense, eye of Coral Gables, who had visited in Chicago, and was returning home. Mr. Wheeler owns 50 acres of fine land near the Hillsboro canal at the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Burke of Chicago were callers Wednesday morning, thanks to the courtesy of J. L. Kerr, the Pahokee jeweler, their brother-in-law, who was showing them the country. The Burkes were on their way to Miami to make a few weeks during the tourist season. Mr. Burke is a civil engineer, specializing in bridge construction. He is the City of Chicago, and is a member of the Chicago Board of Trade. He is interested in the project for the Lake Okechobee levees which he stopped on the west side of the lake to observe.

Some seed potatoes for testing by the Everglades Experiment station have been furnished through H. S. McLeod, agricultural agent for the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Mr. McLeod visited the station Thursday to consult with Dr. Allison on the subject, and to make a trip to inspect the Canal Point and Pahokee. Some of the tests of seed potatoes are being made on an company property at Lake Harbor.

In the editor's absence Thursday morning, Mr. R. H. Hart, editor of the West Palm Beach Post, called and left his card. Sorry to miss you, young Mr. Hart. He is the original, is one of the earliest settlers in Palm Beach county and the wife of the man who was killed.

Charles E. Emerson, of Jacksonville, editor of the Florida Live Stock Record, spent a few days in the region this week taking notes for an article on the trucking industry and the sugar cane.

He was accompanied by his wife and by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mabel C. Sheffer, Mrs. Emerson visited Fort Pierce several days ago and later at West Palm Beach. Recently he was in Texas and California. "Frank" he is right when he says the Lake region has the best prospects of any country he knows of.

P. A. BILCH of West Palm Beach, an attaché of the office of James M. Owens, tax assessor, was here this week checking up on a personal property. Because a branch personal firm is to be located here, it is interesting to note that Mr. B. A. Bilch of West Palm Beach is a cousin of the Mr. Bilch who is interested in the project.

Administration at Raiford having world-wide commendation. F. K. A. is a fine fellow, too.

"THE CHAMP" STORY OF GREAT HEART APPEAL

"The Champ," which brings Wallace Berry and Jackie Cooper together in two stars in a single picture, is an amazing romance. The picture is a poignant heart interest drama, showing the hero of "The Big House" and the hero of "Klippy" as father and son.

Berry plays a broken down, fight champion, pathetically striving for a come back and his lost glory. Jackie is his son, who, notwithstanding what everyone says, thinks he's the greatest man in the world.

And for the boy's future, the "has been" makes a sacrifice that transcends description.

King Vidor directed the picture from an original story by Frances Marion. Much of it was actually filmed below the border, this being the first time this has been possible.

Berry and Jackie rise to mighty dramatic heights in the full sequence and his heart-grIPPING action, and in the touching dramatic scene in the fight arena. There is a sensational prize fight, a thrilling Caliente horse race and a dramatic episode in a gambling hall. Jackie and a "gang" of little Mexicans together provide the picture with a dramatic episode in a gambling hall. Jackie and a "gang" of little Mexicans together provide the picture with a dramatic episode in a gambling hall.

As do Romeo Astor and Edward Brophy.

HUDSON LOST CAR, BUT GOT IT BACK

The new sedan of G. V. Hudson, Canal Point merchant, was stolen Saturday morning from in front of his place of business. It was recovered later in the day on the Fort Myers road, north of Okechobee, where Sheriff Simmons overtook the car being driven by two negroes.

News of the car being stolen was telephoned to officers of West Palm Beach. In the morning, said Sheriff Simmons, and the negroes of the car being stolen, but gave a description which included a dent in the back of the car. This dent was noticed by the driver of a gasoline-filling truck at Okechobee, who informed Sheriff Simmons, and the negroes of the car being stolen, but gave a description which included a dent in the back of the car.

Barber in the morning, said Sheriff Simmons, and the negroes of the car being stolen, but gave a description which included a dent in the back of the car.

SEABOARD MAY HOLD R. R. RIGHT OF WAY

The Everglades drainage district board at its meeting in West Palm Beach, Monday morning, received further request from the Seaboard Air Line railway to extend the right of way to the south end of the project.

A large part of this land is covered by excellent timber, and it is thought that in the event the owners do not wish to recede, it may be sold to other persons for the value of the timber.

Soil experts from the University of Miami made a thorough analysis of this land in 1928, and pronounced it far superior to the Everglades land for the production of sugar cane.

It had been the intention of the Cole interests to excavate a canal through the property from the north to the south, thus draining the tract and carrying off the surplus water into the St. Lucie canal. Before they had begun the work, the project was abandoned.

Three years ago there was a well-defined plan to clear the entire tract and plant it to sugar cane. Much of the land in the "Allapattah" flats proper, however, is not so well suited to the sugar cane as the land in the "Allapattah" flats proper.

It was said the federal government proposed to purchase the land, and the sugar would be shipped via Stuart to Savannah for refining.

That was in the days when it was expected a harbor for deep sea vessels would shortly be opened at Stuart, and it was thought the crude product of the sugar mill could be stored in the holds of vessels as ballast.

A part of the dream was to float the crude sugar on barges down the canal to Stuart, thus reducing the expense almost to nil. But "them days" if not gone forever, are at least around the corner where property is hiding so successfully that no one seems able to find it.

FORCE TAX LIEN ON ALLAPATTAN FLATS

STUART, Jan. 11.—Steps to foreclose the tax lien on a great area in the Allapattah Flats section are now being taken at the court house. This land is known as the Cole tract, and comprises approximately 12,000 acres.

The land lies in townships 38 and 39, south of range 35, and is owned by the Southern Sugar Company from the Lake Shore Land Company, in 1929. No taxes have been paid on the property since 1924, and in 1929 it was sold for the 75 taxes.

At the regular meeting of the county commissioners in December, a resolution was passed instructing the county attorney to proceed with the foreclosure of such lands for delinquent state and county taxes, which amount to approximately between $25,000 and $30,000, and upon which the state now holds tax certificates of the sale of July 1, 1929.

This property will be foreclosed under the authority given Act 2072, of 1925, which permits county commissioners or the state controller to order tax foreclosed on any lands on which the state has held tax sale certificates for two or more years.

The suit will be brought in the name of the state of Florida for its own use and for the use of Martin county, and the present owner and all other holders of claims against this property will be made defendants.

County Attorney L. Evans Cray is now ready to file the suit as soon as the clerk of the circuit court has completed his computation of the amount of taxes due, and has completed his work of making out certificates to be used in the suit. This of itself is a considerable task, but it will be completed shortly.

J. R. Pomery, clerk, said today all that remains to be done is the making out of the 1931 certificates.

THE EVERGLADES NEWS

THE EVERGLADES NEWS

That is all past and the money cannot be recovered. Suckers deserve to lose, perhaps. But a lesson should be learned by the loss.

These three men, all of whom professed to be disinterested World War veterans, and one of the two women claimed to be a gold star mother, are exempt from income payment of these grounds.

They purchased for themselves and families and oil for their cars and trucks in the towns through which they travel, but they return not one cent more to the community.

That people should fall for such elaborate and obvious tricks has not been publicized in the community.

With musical instruments and vile humor they entertained their audience. With some sort of medicine they demonstrated their marvelous pain-killers and remedies. They sold small bottles of what they claimed was the same medicine for one dollar a bottle and scores purchased.

But next morning when the troupe had left, their patients, who had failed to kill pain and their remedies failed to cure. Those who owned these dollar bottles of wonderful remedies would have been glad to exchange them for ten cent bottles of peroxide.

The Everglades section has been, and is, a progressive and its business more active than almost any other section of the state. It is to be expected that we will be overrun with similar fakes and schemes to collect from the money that should stay in the community. Will we continue to fall for them?

FRANKIE AND JOHNNY

"FRANKIE and Johnny were lovers" goes a familiar song, and few of its many singers perhaps know that Frankie and Johnny were real lovers, who lived in the negro section of St. Louis not so long ago, and that Frankie is still alive, a thick-set colored woman, now fifty-five years old, with graying hair and a more recent record of forty years ago across one cheek.

Frankie herself is not prone to discuss how she "got her man" but she does not deny that she "done her wrong," but the facts of the case may be dug up out of various police, morgue and hospital records and shaped into a readable if sordid tale. Allen Britt, later Albert and still later Johnny, came to St. Louis with his parents in 1891, and there, at an Orange Blossom ball met Frankie's father, handsome, but ten years his senior, and formed for her his fatal attachment.

One night Frankie found Johnny in the ill-lit hallway of the Phoenix hotel lavishly on a pretty negro nurse named Alice. From the attention she claimed exclusively as her own, took him home, and in the climax of a violent quarrel which lasted all night shot him with his own gun just as he was advancing on her with a drawn knife. Fatally wounded, Johnny staggered to his own home where he later called the police and his mother an ambulance to take him to the hospital. He died four days later and his funeral was a gala affair, well attended. Almost immediately after, the wretched affair was being celebrated in song and Frankie, freed of the toils of the law, bore herself with the pride of a wrong well avenged.
